

Detox Support for Healthy Liver Function*

The liver is a genius at synchronization, skillfully coordinating 500 essential functions for the body. Like a biological 'mastermind', it controls the filtering and purifying of the blood flowing through it, while producing hormones and simultaneously stores extra nutrients like fat-soluble vitamins. It also removes excess proteins, damaged red blood cells and toxins.

Mannatech Essentials Liver Support capsules are formulated with a proprietary blend of herbs and nutrients to detoxify and support healthy liver function and digestive health.*

Benefits:

- Supports the liver's ability to detoxify.*
- Supports the metabolism of food to energy.*
- Supports healthy nutrients levels.*
- Promotes healthy liver function.*
- Supports the liver's many functions.*
- Supports digestive health.*
- Supports cellular energy production.*
- Provides choline which may help support healthy methylation.*

Give your liver the support that it needs to properly support you!

FUN FACT

The liver consists of 96 percent water, is larger than your brain and can regenerate itself in about 15 days.
